

*Hiwassee's
Diary
1996*

Opening

The Future Is Upon Us

The story of Hiwassee College has elements of high drama. As one traces her history, the question, "Why did she survive?" comes again and again. At least four times the end seemed inevitable. The beginning in the remote Knobs of Monroe County seemed improbable. The first crisis came with the War Between the States just eleven years later. At the close of the war, reopening Hiwassee was a real act of faith.

The second crisis came when the Holston Conference, absorbed in its own educational projects, refused to accept the college as a conference project. Without this kind of support continued survival seemed impossible. Conference relationship was achieved only after long, arduous efforts.

The third crisis came with the depression of 1897 which led to dissolving Conference ties. Coupled with the loss of Conference support, and the depression, the State of Tennessee began developing a sweeping public education system.

The fourth crisis came with the depression of the 1930's followed by World War II and Methodist Unification. Only the valiant support of alumni gave reprieve at this point. Then a bold, creative program set in motion forces which achieved the seemingly impossible rebirth of Hiwassee . . .

It is hoped that this look into the past of Hiwassee College by those who love her will be of value as she moves into the uncharted future.

Commemorating My College Years

This was the Ministerial Council of 1928. Their motto was "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

The Hiwassee Band? Although the music was a little different, it was still as popular in the 1950's as ours is today.

Mark Houge says about Jason Roe, "He's got the look!"

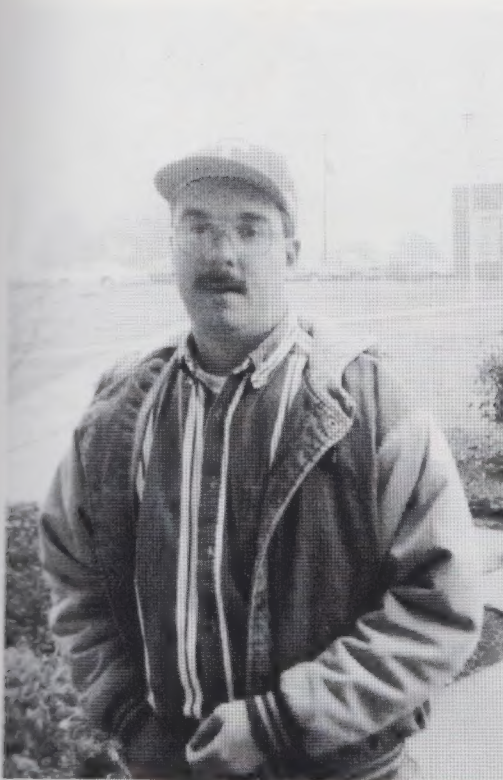

Good pals: Pat Woodby, Sarah Melton and Kristi Hensley.

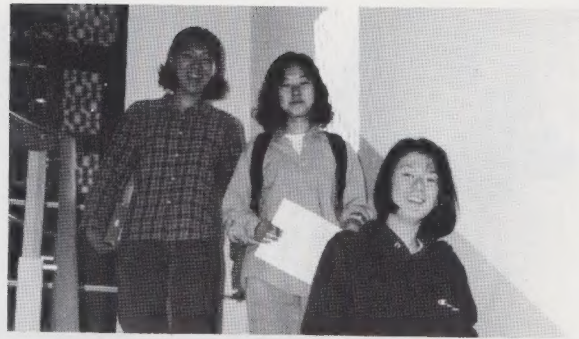

"GO AHEAD! Make my day!" says Andrea Reed.

"Good morning. There will be light showers today with a high of 40 degrees and a low of 22. This has been Steve McMillan.

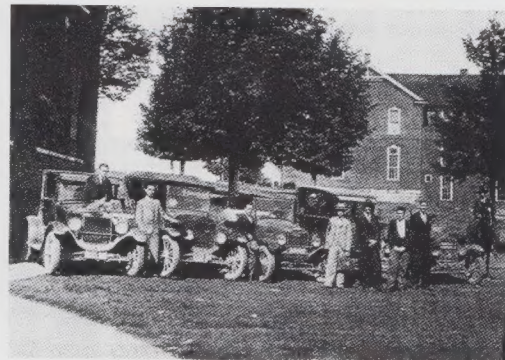

America is a happy experience for us.

"Quick, hide the snowballs! Here comes the dean!"

1928 Hiwassee College Students enjoy gathering around a car. Although the young men and women liked to ride in cars, they missed out on cruising Wal-mart.

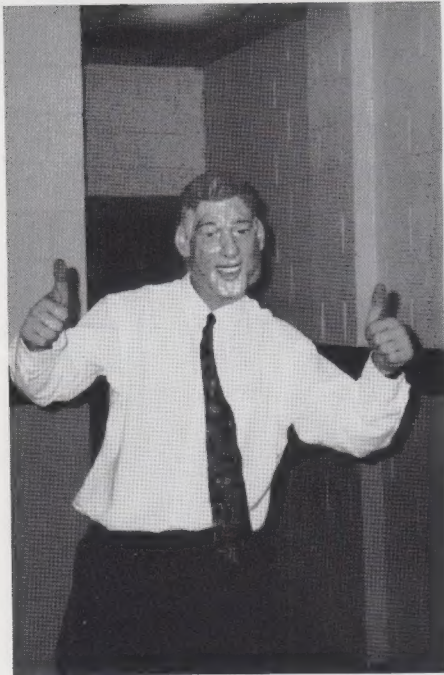

In the 1920's, the Circuit Riders were ministers who attended classes at Hiwassee during the week and served their churches on the weekend.

John Frey, Edward Powers, and Amy Ghorley are always entertainers.

Did President Clinton visit Hiwassee College?

The lady (Stanley Laws) and the cow (Emmalene Jacobs) are a sight to behold!

Fred (Mike Farmer) is looking for Wilma.

The monster needs her (Heather Koeppe) blood because he is anemic.

Happy Valentine's Day

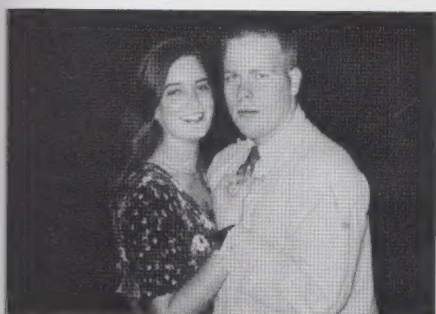

Melody Carroll and Jamie Taylor are the King and Queen.

Dorm Life

Times to Remember

1995-1996. Males lived in Tom Black Hall, females in Brock Hall and Allison Hall. We experience a lot of things in these dorms. We study for exams, do homework, listen to crazy music from another room, decorate our rooms, arrange posters, shout for joy or anger, set off the alarm, and play video games. Dorm life has something special for all.

Sophomores

Recollections and Reflections

This photo is the 1928 Life Service Band. The enrollment of Hiwassee in 1928 was one hundred and forty-nine students as the depression neared. The president of the college was Donald Rudy Youell.

"You want me to take pictures of what?" Michael, the yearbook photographer, feels the pressure of a deadline.

"Yes, Ms. Lowe. I know the Law of Supply and Demand."

Justin Jones replied, "I hate eight o'clock classes."

We asked Mr. Powers for a caption, but he could not "pick" one.

Matt Miner? In a library? "I do study ... every once in a while."

"Please, no more pictures, Sarah!!" Amy Presley begs.

These students are enjoying themselves at Hiwassee's Homecoming. In 1958, the college received accreditation from the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

These Hiwassee fans are enjoying a basketball game. The spirit of Hiwassee basketball has reigned throughout the years as the team won a number of championships.

The Sophomore Class

Matt Miner is engrossed in getting his nutrition right.

Lee Alice Plemons and Melanie Arp are having a really good day.

Sophomore Class Officers: Vice-President Heather Mitchell, Secretary Elizabeth Wenzel, President Tara Hodges, and Treasurer Chad Littleton.

The 1995-1996 year has been great for the sophomores. Sophomores have helped freshmen become familiar with clubs and activities at Hiwassee College. In addition, they have been active in a variety of events such as the Halloween Dance, Homecoming, and Talent Show. They also have a variety of unique personalities, and have shown strong ability in these different activities. In addition to their participation in such activities, they have done well in academics and in sports. Many have been seen studying in the library, the learning center, and their dorm rooms. Although sometimes it may have been easier to give up, they survived their first two years of college. Sophomores participated well in sport teams such as basketball, baseball, softball, soccer, and cheerleading. They have been doing well studying hard. Their experiences at Hiwassee will turn out to be great food for their life because each of them will carry with them a piece of Hiwassee College.

Honor Roll Who's Who Among American Junior Colleges

Melody Paige Carroll is an Elementary Education and Accounting major. She was motivated to come to Hiwassee by her high school computer teacher, Mrs. Pat Fritz. Melody remembers singing in front of all the students during chapel. Melody would like to thank Mr. Jordan for giving her the opportunity to sing. She would also like to thank Mrs. Chasteen, Mrs. Arwood and Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty for being so helpful to her the last two years. Thanks also goes to Lee Alice Plemons, Kim Bradley, and Mandy Ramfjord for being the best of friends.

— Sachiko Arai

John Frey is majoring in Music and Drama Education. He wants to be a singer, actor, or teacher. Although John lived in Georgia and Florida, he is now living in New York. John went to Hiwassee because it is a Christian college. John's most memorable moment was when he blocked the two baseball players across the hall into their room and greased all the others' doors with gel. He would like to give credit to and thank Ms. McClellan for helping him improve his singing ability and Eddie Powers for giving him the love of theatre.

— Jamie Taylor

Heather Mitchell is majoring in Human Services. She is from Woodstock, Georgia. Heather comes from a family with three sisters, one brother, and two supporting parents. Originally, Heather was motivated to come to Hiwassee to play basketball; she was influenced by the academic level of the school. Heather's most memorable moment comes from playing in the snow. She has enjoyed being a part of the basketball team and will never forget her times with the team. Three people that Heather would like to thank are Bill and Carolyn Daugherty and her roommate Tara Hodges whom she will remember and love always.

— Jamie Taylor

Brook Hemphill is pursuing a degree in Secondary Education. Brook was motivated to come to Hiwassee because all of his family graduated from the institution. Brook remembers going to the Men's National Basketball Tournament and helping the women's basketball team get back on their feet as a student assistant coach. Brook would like to thank Ms. Wade for having faith in him, Dr. Howard for being one of the best people he knows and to Coach Walsh for giving him opportunities. Brook has learned a lot from all of these people.

— Jamie Taylor

Marlana Anderson is pursuing a degree in Human Services and one day hopes to work with troubled children. She has lived in many places. However, her favorite place is Evansville, Indiana. Marlana was motivated to come to Hiwassee because of the small campus and the ability to achieve closeness with the people. Surviving college algebra is Marlana's most memorable moment. She would like to thank all the instructors here at Hiwassee: "They honestly care about the students." Marlana would also like to give credit to the Student Support Services; she feels they are an added benefit to the school.

— Jamie Taylor

Beverly Michelle Powell, from Sweetwater, is working on a Business major and hopes to manage a hotel. She says she has the greatest family that anyone could have. The thing that motivated Beverly the most in coming to Hiwassee was the teacher-student ratio. Beverly would like to thank Ron Hemphill, Kathy Bledsoe, Mrs. Lowe, and Dr. Howard for helping her out and some of her good friends which include Angie Russell, Julie Armstrong, Susie Chambers, Adam Haeck, Dirk Lommerse, Chad Davis, and Kristi Hensley. Beverly says that everyone at Hiwassee is great.

— Jamie Taylor

Jamie Taylor has spent most of his life in Dalton, Georgia. He has a supporting family consisting of two loving parents and sisters. At first, baseball motivated him to come to Hiwassee, but that was before he discovered all of the exceptional people. Jamie would like to give credit to all of the staff and teachers for being behind him every step of the way for the last two years. He would also like to give much credit to his friends. He feels he has developed a numerous amount of friendships and loves each and every one of them. Jamie hopes they all last over time.

— Jamie Taylor

Chad Eric Littleton is a Psychology major, and he wants to get a master's degree and become a counseling psychologist. Although originally from Athens, Chad resides in Brownsville, TX. He was motivated to come to Hiwassee due to the closeness of the community. Chad wants to give credit to Jeff Bird and Melody Carroll and thank them for encouraging him and making his time at Hiwassee a good experience. Jeff and Melody are two great friends.

— Jamie Taylor

Tara Marie Hodges' major is Psychology and she plans to get her Ph.D. in Psychology. She comes from Powell High School. She had already planned to attend another college when she decided to come to Hiwassee after she came and visited with the help of Dean Walsh. Her memorable moment at Hiwassee was playing in the snow her freshman year. Bill and Carolyn Daugherty showed her, especially in the worst of times, to never give up, keep praying and things will eventually work out. She would also like to thank Heather Mitchell for being a great friend. She will remember everyone always.

— Sachiko Arai

Sarah Angela Melton is a Communications major. She has a very supportive family who always encouraged her to do her best. She decided to come to Hiwassee because Hiwassee has been a family tradition for her. Her parents met each other at Hiwassee, and her sister also attended. Sarah's most memorable moment was the time that she burnt sausage in her microwave. Smoke poured out of the microwave and people walked out in the halls and asked what smells? Her roommate was not happy. She listed all her thank you's on the editor's page.

— Sachiko Arai

Bridgette Erin Raines is majoring in Human Services. She grew up in Madisonville with her wonderful family. Because her father is a preacher, she was raised in a very loving Christian home. When she was a high school student, she never wanted to go to Hiwassee, but after attending UTK, Hiwassee looked very enticing. She missed her family, friends and small community. Her most memorable moment at Hiwassee is being accepted into PTK. She would like to give credit to a wonderful teacher Reeca Lowe who makes everything so interesting to her. Mrs. Daugherty has also been a great teacher.

— Sachiko Arai

Emmalene Jacobs is majoring in Early Childhood Education. Emmalene is from Loudon County and has a sister. She is the third person in her entire family to go to college. She says God led her to Hiwassee because "One day I graduated high school and the next thing I knew I was here." She would like to thank Reeca Lowe, Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. Dash, and Laverne McKinley. She thinks if it wasn't for them, she would have never made it. Ms. Lowe continues to have an impact on Emmalene's life. She taught her to remember this phrase: "I've got shoes and I've got feet."

— Sachiko Arai

Amy Kidd is majoring in Accounting. She grew up in Maryville, TN, where she attended William Blount High School. She came to Hiwassee because of the size of the campus, the peaceful setting, and the friendliness of the students and staff. Her most memorable moment at Hiwassee is playing volleyball on the quad. Amy is thankful for all her supportive friends and teachers who helped shape her experience at Hiwassee.

— Sachiko Arai

Lee Alice Plemons' major is Secondary Education, and she plans to attend UTK to receive her master's degree. Her career goal, is to teach high school English. She grew up with one younger brother and one younger sister in Madisonville. Her father is a farmer, and her mother is a teacher. She decided to come to Hiwassee because she was not ready to attend a larger school. Her most memorable moment is when she went skiing with the ski class to Ober Gatlinburg last year.

— Sachiko Arai

Patricia A. Woodby majors in Pre-Pharmacy and plans to go to Samford University. She grew up with two sisters in Sweetwater. Her most memorable moment is the week of the big snow and using her exerslide as a sled. She wants to recognize her best friends: Kristi "S.Q." Hensley, Emmalene Jacobs, Sarah Melton, Amberly Watson, and "Precious." She was very happy to see her best friend Tammy become Head Resident of Brock Hall. They were all here to support her. She would also like to thank Mrs. Gilchrist for teaching her.

— Sachiko Arai

Chris Shawn Cate is majoring in Elementary Education and his future goals are to be an Elementary school teacher and a Christian Education teacher. Chris wants to thank the ladies in Student Support Services for their inspiration, and also Mrs. Bledsoe, Mrs. Butler, and Mrs. Swabe, who influenced him to keep teaching. He also wants to thank Jason Roe and Jimmy Goddard for their support. Chris wants to thank Coach Hughes and the other coaches for the opportunity to be aquatic director. Chris wants to thank all of the professors, staff, and administration for everything they do for Hiwassee.

— Michael McConkey

Tonia Denise Mize is majoring in Physical Therapy. She grew up in Seymour, Tennessee and has an extremely close family. She decided to come to Hiwassee because of the sincere concern for the students by the faculty and staff. Her most memorable moment was when she received the Freshman Chemistry Award. Tonia wants to thank everyone that is a part of Hiwassee College. She wants to thank every faculty member and staff member for their support and help. She wants to thank Dr. Fowler for his encouragement and she would also like to thank Dr. Wright.

— Michael McConkey

Elizabeth Anne Wenzel is a Physical Education major. She would like to recognize Heather Koeppel. She says that Heather showed up on the first day of school all smiles, and they have been the best of friends ever since. She would like to thank Stacey Morgan whom she has enjoyed getting to know, Ms. Tompkins, Dr. Howard, Dr. McCall, Ms. Miller, Ms. Daugherty, and Coach Hughes as teachers and as friends. She thanks her friends Heather Koeppel, Eddie Jenkins, Melody Carroll, Kim Bradley, Amr Madi, Yazan Khalaf, Sarah Melton, Chris Cate and Matt Wilhelm for being friends and good listeners.

— Sarah Melton

Jason C. Roe is a Pre-Ministerial major. He came from a very Christian family. He thinks Hiwassee is great because of the friendships he has made. He wants to thank Mr. Daugherty for his compassion to the students, Dr. McCall and Rev. Blakemore for their guidance, and Ms. Wade for her support of BSU. He wants to thank the administration for their "Hello's" as he walked by their office and all the teachers for their inspiration. He would most like to honor Chris Cate and Jimmy Goddard for being his best friends.

— Sarah Melton

Kristi J. Hensley came from a very loving and supportive family who taught her the value of education. She wants to thank Jesus Christ most importantly. She would like to thank Dr. McCall, Dr. Howard, Ms. Chasteen, and Ms. Daugherty, who have helped her educational experience. She also wants to thank Yasin, Madi, Chris Cate, Melody, Amy Kidd, Amy Phillips, and Amberly Watson for being good friends. She wants to thank her best friends April Hutchinson, Emmalene Jacobs, Sarah Melton, and Pat Woodby for going beyond the call of duty as friends. She wants to thank Ms. Wade for being a friend and teacher.

— Sarah Melton

Angela Russell is a Special Education major. She came from the town that hosts the Equestrian Olympics, Conyers, Georgia. She wants to thank Coach Harris and all of the softball girls for always being there and helping her out. "I love you guys!" She thanks Beverly Powell and Jamie Dye for being her sisters through thick and thin. Also, she would most like to thank Brook Hemphill for giving her a caring shoulder to lean on. She also wants to thank Rev. Blakemore and Jason Roe for constantly pushing her toward the Lord. Her most memorable moment was being crowned Homecoming Queen.

— Sarah Melton

Natoshia M. Courtland is originally from Athens. Her reasons for coming to Hiwassee include the fact that her mother and aunt are both graduates from the school.

Natoshia is a major in Liberal Arts or Pre-Law, and her future plans include becoming a Contract Lawyer. Her most memorable moment is winning the TASP Merit Award. Natoshia would like to thank all of her teachers and friends. She would also like to wish Lakesha Carson the best of luck at UTC, and she will always remember their times together.

— Shigeru Suzuki

Jodie Moser is majoring in Bible and Religion. Growing up in Sweetwater, Jodie was raised by a strong Christian family. Hiwassee's faculty and staff was one of the reasons why Jodie attended the school. His most memorable moment came on the sophomore trip when Clay Moss was taken into custody by the police. Jodie would like to thank God for the opportunity to attend Hiwassee, and also Mike Tate, Kathy Bledsoe, Ron Hemphill, Bill Daugherty, and Rev. Blakemore. Special thanks goes to Jason Roe for being such a great friend.

Hi! I'm Chris and I love my job! I'm John and I'd rather be roller blading.

Stanley seems to be having a hard time with those cuffs. Stacey is just thinking back to the first time she was put in jail, and Amy remembers she forgot to put deodorant on.

Hey, dudes, look who I cuffed! No, Jason, you can't take me. I'm a teacher, you know, Mr. Powers, and I really need to use the restroom.

This picture is showing a bus trip from Hiwassee in the 1970's. It was in 1970 when the building, the Barker Learning Center, was built.

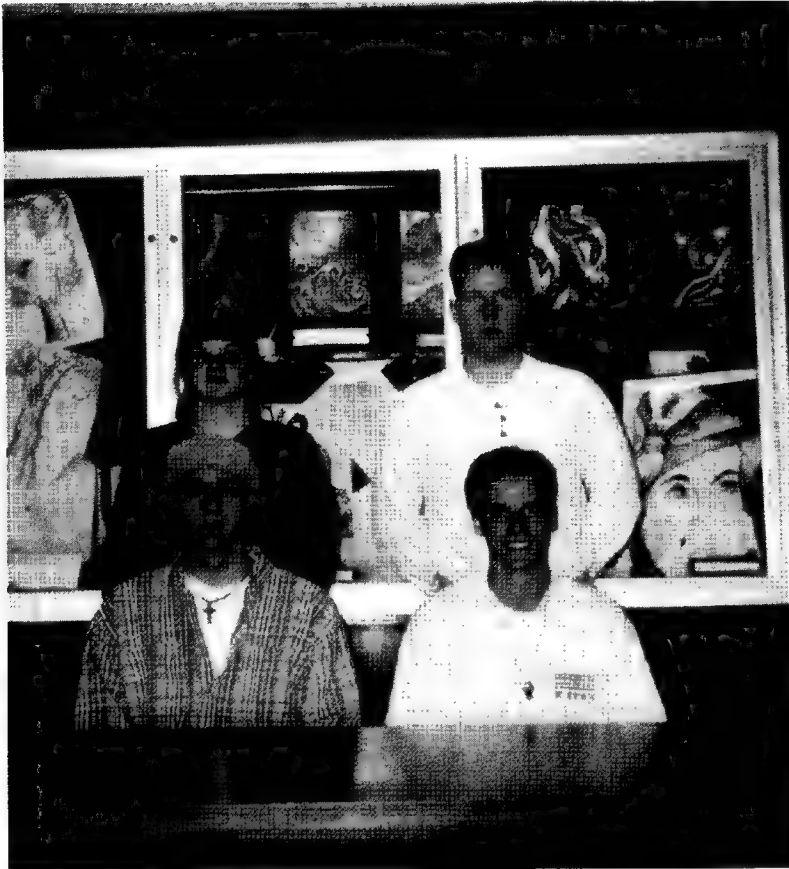

The depression did not keep these Hiwasseans down. In the 1930's students had football teams that won the Southeastern Junior College Conference title.

The Freshmen Class

Freshmen Class Officers

President, Stanley Laws; Vice President, Trey Murphy; Secretary, Amy Ghorley; Treasurer, Terry Johnson.

The Freshmen Class, in size and attitude, is an example that Hiwassee is building its strength as a college. The freshmen have been a strong contribution to the voice of Hiwassee College students since they arrived on campus. These students have shown powerful potential in leadership roles across campus in sports and academics. The class officers, together with the freshmen class, planned a jail-a-thon as well as several other activities to raise money for their class. The freshmen students hold within them the spirit of Hiwassee to carry on to the next class.

Academics

Building for the Future

This is the 1923 Administration Building, which served as the heart of Hiwassee because it held the classrooms, administrative offices, the library, and faculty offices.

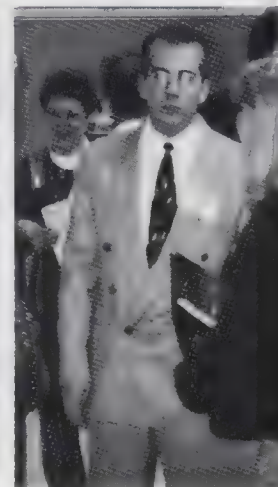

Appointed president in 1955, Horace Barker put plans of a new campus into action. We can thank Mr. Barker for several facilities, including the Barker Learning Center.

Does Laverne McKinley ever stop working? Between classes and Student Support Services, Laverne is in a constant rush to get things done.

Rev. Steve Blakemore lines up some CSM members for next year.

Mr. Edwards asks, "Did you say ecology?" He takes the environment very seriously.

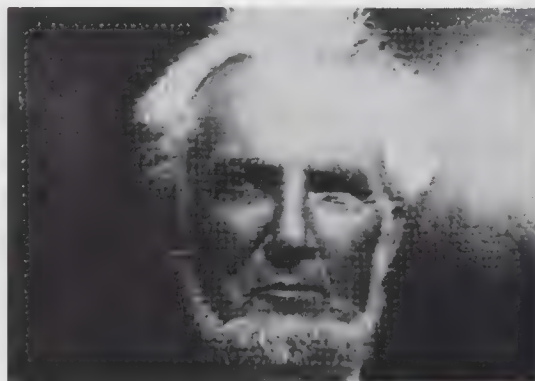

Someone needs to tell Dr. Howard that a baseball game is not a good place to do a crossword puzzle.

Ms. Wade looks so sweet. One might think she enjoys marking wrong answers on a test!

Marsh Hall was the building for science studies in the fifties. The Lundy Science Hall was not constructed until 1959.

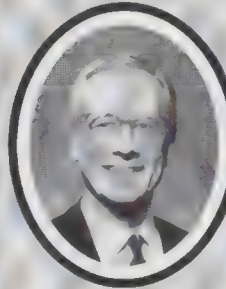

Rev. John Brunner was the second president of Hiwassee in 1854. During the Civil War, he was forced to close the school. Following the school's reopening, Rev. Brunner served several terms.

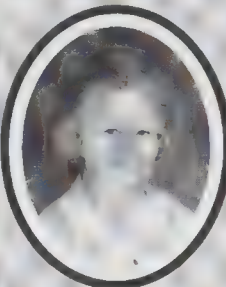

Our Special Thanks

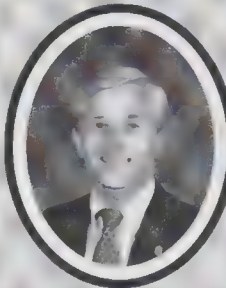

Marty Chambers: Treasurer/Business Officer and Instructor in Accounting. C.P.A.; B.S., Tennessee Wesleyan College; M. Acc., The University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Served Hiwassee for 15 years.

Stephen E. Fritz: President. Ph.D., University of Kentucky; postdoctoral study at Oxford University. Served Hiwassee for 8 years.

Bettye Coffelt: Manager of Book Store and Post Office. Served Hiwassee for 30 years.

Robert L. Hale: Vice President for Institutional Advancement. Served Hiwassee for 5 years.

Sharing Dreams and Memories

Bill McBride was unique in that he could say he got his entire education at Hiwassee, beginning first grade in 1917. Hiwassee, at that time, had an elementary school. He continued on through high school and eventually completed two years of college. In the fall of 1949, he accepted the job as head of the maintenance department at Hiwassee. He continued this position until his death June 25, 1962.

Christian Student Movement

The Christian Student Movement is part of the strong Christian life Hiwassee has established. This organization is led by Reverend Steve Blakemore. As Chaplain, he encourages all Hiwassee students to attend the weekly Wednesday night meetings, which consist of a variety of activities. Sometimes students come together to listen to guest speakers, and other times the focus is fellowship among other Christian students. The club also sponsors field trips and several concerts and performances throughout the year.

Loys

Jordan

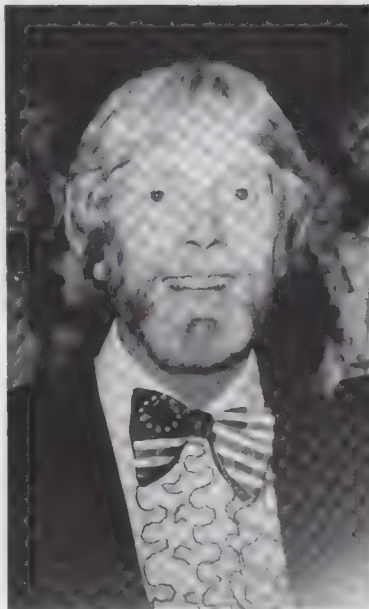

Mr. Loys Jordan, a man of discrete taste and extraordinary patience, oh excuse us, we are talking about the wrong man. Let's start this again.

Mr. Loys Jordan has graced the Hiwassee College Music Department for the past twenty years. This being his 20th year of service, he has decided to "re-tire" and move on to bigger and better things, like ride his big motorcycle over the Plateau of Middle Tennessee, along with a healthy and nutritious snack of oranges.

But on a serious "note," ha ha! get it? note, anyway, Mr. Jordan has been a great asset to Hiwassee. He started the group known as Shalom and since then has co-worked with the Drama Department on several musicals, such as CAMELOT, BRIGADOON, SOUTH PACIFIC, THE APPLETREE, and BABES IN ARMS.

During rehearsals, "Mr. J," as he is often called, liked to have lots of fun, but he knows the time and the place when he needs to bring the Choir and Shalom back to reality in order to get the task of practicing and performing done. This is obviously reflected in the concerts and performances of these two groups. Though he will be leaving us this year, we will never forget him. Mr. Jordan has planted a seed in all of his students that contains confidence and determination. This seed will grow and bloom within all of us. Even though some think that his method of directing is "BAD, BAD, BAD!!!" such as "Sopranos! You sound anemic!" or "Basses! Wrong note!" or "Altos and Tenors! Too loud!" — we still love him!!

Love You Forever,

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America was our Club of the Year recipient because they have been one of the most active clubs on campus through the leadership of Lena Beth Carmichael. Ms. Carmichael was the winner of the Horace N. Barker award for service. One of the events FFA sponsored was the Quiz Bowl in the fall where FFA members from three counties participated. They also held a livestock judging that hosted high school students from five counties. In addition, members sponsored the barn dance on campus. Other activities include a farm machinery show and a trip to Louisville, KY, for the North American Livestock Exposition.

Circle K

Circle K stands proudly this semester as one of the more active organizations. After years of staying sedentary, the club was activated this year by Adam Abbott with the help of Trey Murphy, President. Circle K is the collegiate level of the Kiwanis Club. Among other projects, this service organization helped the Habitat for Humanity paint and repair houses for the poor. The club also helped Kiwanis in their yearly bike-a-thon. On campus, Circle K participated in the adopt-a-spot project to help in the beautification of our campus.

Circle K

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club has been growing greatly. The IRC has more than fifteen members including Japanese, a Costa Rican, a Bolivian, and Americans. They have had many events such as trips to Knoxville to see the fireworks on Labor Day, to the mall, to the lake, and so on. They have been exchanging cultures of their own countries, and that is one of the purposes of the IRC.

— Kazuma Hatano

Soccer Club

The soccer club had their first training on September 23 in front of Tom Black Hall with only eight players. Now there are more than twelve players. This team is interesting because Americans, Japanese, Jordanians, and a Bolivian are on the team. Their team's coach, Philip Stewart, makes them practice hard for building team endurance.

Cast and Crew of ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

In a house lived two old ladies who wouldn't hurt a fly (Jill Green and Carole Witt) — at least that is what their nephew Mortimer (Trey Murphy) thought. Then he discovered that his aunts were murdering lonely old men that they thought would be happier dead! The plot thickens when Mortimer's brother Jonathan (John Frey) and his "assistant" Dr. Einstein (Sarah Tallent) . . . along with a dead body . . . come home to hide from the police. Then the craziness begins as Mortimer struggles to keep the police from discovering that his aunts are murderers. He tries to stay in one piece against the will of Jonathan, while trying to keep the truth from his beloved fiancée Elaine (April Powers). The play is made even funnier by Mortimer's other brother Teddy (Mike Johnson), who thought he was Theodore Roosevelt and did his aunts a favor by burying the "yellow fever victims" in the basement. This comedy is truly another excellent performance by Theatre Hiwassee.

Mike Johnson as Teddy Brewster . . . as Teddy Roosevelt.

Mortimer is in knots over the return of Jonathan and his sidekick.

The Police were slow to catch on to Jonathan Brewster. Jennifer Henry, Robbie Hicks, Whitney Lewis, and John Frey.

The cast of JUVIE includes Trey Murphy, John Davis, Heather Koepp, Jim Schiavoni, Whitney Lewis, Deanna Fields, John Frey, April Powers, Amy Ghorley, Jemmie Godwin, and Jennifer Henry.

The Three Dramatic Stories presented by Theatre Hiwassee included JUVIE, HELLO OUT THERE, and MISS FARNSWORTH. The plays dealt with human isolation. JUVIE portrayed a Juvenile prison where young people discussed their reason for committing their crimes. The act ends with an update about the youths' futures. HELLO OUT THERE is about a young man thrown in prison for a crime he did not commit. He falls in love with a prison cook who listens to his pleas for justice. Before they are able to run away together, the young man is murdered by small town vigilantes. MISS FARNSWORTH is about a lady who separates from harsh reality by creating fantasies only found in novels. This causes her to lose her job and, eventually, her fight with the real world.

— Sarah Melton

Above: The cast of MISS FARNSWORTH includes Deanna Fields, Trey Murphy, Kathy Tallent, Jim Schiavoni, John Frey, and April Powers.

Right: The cast of HELLO OUT THERE includes Ted Dryer, Amy Ghorley, John Davis, Robbie Hicks, and April Powers.

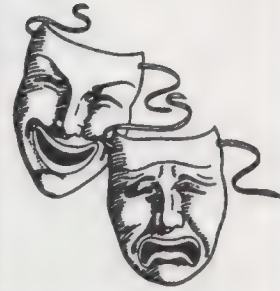

Three Dramatic Stories and Babes in Arms

The musical BABES IN ARMS was a comical story about a playhouse that was fighting to survive. The actors in the playhouse had a different idea of what would be good for the playhouse than the owner did. The owner, Mr. Fleming (McCall), wanted to put on a play by a famous playwright (Jackson) which the actors thought was terrible, including the star of the play Jennifer Owen (Lynn). The actors then went to a lot of trouble to put on their own production to the famous actor, Steve Edwards (Schiavoni). They kidnapped him and took him to a barn to watch the play, which he loved. The story was made complete with tales of star-crossed loves among the actors.

— Sarah Melton

ODHROHIR: THE LITERARY MAGAZINE OF HIWASSEE COLLEGE

The Hiwassee College literary magazine has contributed great opportunities for the students to experience cultural works. The magazine gives Hiwassee students a chance to display their creativity. They have published poetry, stories, and art works created by people of the community or students of Hiwassee. The staff has worked many long hours to finish a unique and interesting magazine that offers something for everyone to appreciate. Members include: Micheal McConkey, Amy Ghorley, Adam Haeck, Heather Bivens, Dr. Jim Schiavoni

— Kazuma Hatano

Amy Ghorley and Dr. Schiavoni are absorbed in editing the magazine.

Robbie Hicks, Dr. Schiavoni, and Heather Bivens are discussing the monster mask. Are they making a horror magazine?

The Campus Ecology Club

The Campus Ecology Club is set up to give students at Hiwassee College opportunities to participate in projects to benefit the environment of both Hiwassee College and the community. They keep in shape the "backyard of Hiwassee" so that students will view beautiful scenery every day. The Ecology Club also gives Hiwassee students an appreciation for nature. The club takes a stand on the destruction of the environment; they want to prevent the depletion of the environment because of the ignorance of mankind. In the picture to the left, Heather Keoppe and Melody Carroll do some membership recruiting.

Forest mensuration takes time and precision to get it just right. Mark Hough, Gary Cole, Greg Kirkland, and Mr. Edwards take their work seriously.

Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa is an International Honors Society. Members of the Phi Theta Kappa Fall Induction of 1996 include: Shiguru Suzuki, Amy Shockey, Whitney White, Stan Houston, Seth Petree, Keith Moser, Holly Matthews, Trey Murphy, Jason Ford, Jamie Roberts, Holly Nicks, Robbie Hicks, Amanda Green, Shannon Littleton, Elizabeth Berrong, John Frey, Joe Fields, Towana Burgess, Angie Russell, Suzie Chambers, Bridgette Estes, Amy Ghorley, April Powers, and Emily Moore. Other members include Fall and Spring of 1995 inductees. A PTK member must have a 3.5 GPA and must maintain a 3.2 throughout his or her membership.

Delta Zeta Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa has been an outstanding chapter this semester in building upon their four hallmarks — scholarship, service, leadership, and fellowship. This year, the Delta Zeta Chapter walked away from the Regional convention with three prestigious awards. They won first place in scholarship, third in service, and Most Outstanding Chapter. They hosted a Mini-Honors Institute and an Honors Study Topic Dinner. They also provided parties and activities for the children in the Rainbow Center.

Social-Psychology Club

Social-Psychology members have combined fun with charitable service this year as they worked toward remaining a strong organization on Hiwassee's campus. For the sake of service, Social-Psychology worked with the Friendship Home in Madisonville. They visited the members of this home for the mentally ill and brought them care packages. They also were very active in recruiting new members during Hiwassee's fall festival as shown in the picture to the right with president of the club Emmalene Jacobs. For fun, the organization sponsored a Halloween dance where Hiwassee students got to dress in scary and sometimes humorous costumes. The activity also acted as a fund-raiser for Social-Psych. In addition, the Club was very active with the students on campus as they sponsored an ice skating trip to Knoxville. Everyone was invited. The mixture of fun and service has been a recipe of success for the Social-Psych Club. The Hiwassee campus, as well as members of the community, has benefited from their activities.

Jesters Chris Cate and Jodie Moser provide hilarious entertainment with their rope trick.

Members of the distinguished Court, Lady Whitney Lewis and Sir Ted Dreyer make an entrance.

Enjoying the Feaste are Sir Michael Coppock, Lady Patricia Pangles, and Sir Robbie Hicks.

The Jester himself is being entertained by the Lorde and Ladye of the castle, Jason Roe and Heather Koepp.

The Japan slide presentation: Dr. Clarence McCall, Dr. James T. Murrell, Barbara Arwood, Carolyn McKeethen, Professor Hiroshi Narita, and Kenichi Shimada.

The Lyceum Committee sponsored several memorable occasions this year. The Madrigal Feaste is always a welcome and exciting affair. From the stately Procession of ye Lorde and Ladye, ye Court, Boar's Head and Wassail to the Roaste Fowle, Sallade, and Flamyng Plumme Pudding, the guests felt that they were transported back in time to experience life in a Medieval castle. Ye Singers were composed of the Hiwassee College Choir and brought such Christmas favorites as "Deck the Hall," "March of the Three Kings," and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy."

Hiwassee travelers to Japan returned with many memories and experiences of a different lifestyle. Carolyn McKeethen, Jim Murrell, and Clarence McCall presented slides of their trip that enhanced our knowledge of Japanese culture and provided an entertaining evening as well.

A Christian rock group called The Four Shadows gave an uplifting concert that brought a spiritual message as well as the pleasure of listening to good music.

The Student Programming Board also worked hard in contributing activities on campus this year. With Stacey Morgan as director, this group of elected SGA members sponsored such events as Fall Festival, weekend jaunts to the Knoxville Zoo and Gatlinburg, as well as ice skating and campus movie nights.

Student Government Association

Being a Student Government Association member is one of the most important roles on campus. The association makes decisions that affect the lives of Hiwassee students yet to come as well as the present student body. The organization is made up of leaders that represent every aspect of the students. Attending SGA this year were SGA officers Jason Roe, Chris Cate, and Melody Carroll; Sophomore class officers Tara Hodges, Heather Mitchell, Amy Phillips, Chad Littleton, Elizabeth Wenzel, Sarah Melton, and Kristy Hensley; and Freshman class officers Stanley Laws, Terry Johnson, Trey Murphy, Amy Ghorley, Jennifer Henry, and Elizabeth Emge along with various club representatives.

Tokyo Institute of Polytechnics

Tokyo Institute of Polytechnics is a two-year college for women in Japan. The TIP students come to Hiwassee to study English and secretarial skills. The ladies find, however, that the Hiwassee experience goes much farther than that. TIP students are very interactive with the activities going on around campus as well as their own special events. They had, for example, a Japanese festival on October 5th.

The students also have a program on campus that helps them get to know Hiwasseans. It is called Big Sisters. In this program, each girl is designated an American counterpart that helps the TIP student to become familiar with American customs. In return, the Hiwassee student is enlightened on Japanese customs. Hiwassee would like to further extend its welcome to TIP students.

The Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff has been a bit different this year than it has ever been. Since the first meeting, we have had a variety of students from different cultures and backgrounds such as Bolivian, Japanese, and American. Later in the semester, we were joined by a Costa Rican. We feel that this diversity has added to the uniqueness of this yearbook by catering to the individuals on campus. We have worked with an open mind to include everything and everyone Hiwassee has to offer so that the generations that come after us can look back at the people of Hiwassee with pride, and you, the student, can glance with fond memories and experiences you shared during your college days. Each of the members of the yearbook have spent hours at the computer, writing captions, drawing layouts, or taking pictures. We believe that the annual this year will be the fruit of such labor.

Hiwassee Tigers

The men's team have had a winning season this year with their Coach Rick Hughes. With strong teamwork and talent, the players and Coach Hughes had a season with twenty-five wins and only five losses. In Conference games, the team went undefeated. This was only the third time in history that a team went undefeated in the conference season. The Tigers followed a great season with the Conference Championship and made the semifinals before losing the semifinal game. Rico Alderson was nominated for the All-American team, and three players made All-Conference team: Darrian Evans, Rico Alderson, and Jamey Upton. Evans and Alderson also made the All-Regional team for the first time in Hiwassee's history. The team's sophomores have won a combined 51 games versus only 11 losses in their two years at Hiwassee. The Tigers also had another hallmark this season by winning seventeen games in a row. The Hiwassee men's basketball team did this after going eight and four to start the season. This team's accomplishments will be remembered for a long time to come.

Lady Tigers

In just three short years, Coach Dean Walsh has driven his Lady Tigers to the National Tournament to establish a school record for winning percentage: 27-6. Hiwassee passed up No. 11 Columbia 79-75 in a tough overtime in the National Junior College Regional Tournament semifinals at Volunteer State. The finals showed the determination of the Lady Tigers as they destroyed Sullivan, KY, to become Eastern Division Region 7 Champs: 88-64. Three Lady Tigers were selected to the All-Tournament team: Keisha Thompson, Cindy Ainsworth, and Katrise Thompson. The Tournament MVP was Cindy Ainsworth, who also was named Third Team All-American. Heather Mitchell was named Academic All-American, and Coach Walsh was named Region 7 Coach of the Year and nominated for National Coach of the Year. The Lady Tigers should be proud of themselves for a very successful season. Coach Walsh says, "This year's team was a true team; if we did not play together as a team we did not win."

Tiger Baseball Team

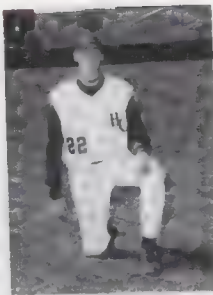

The Tiger baseball team did not do as well as they planned. However, they maintained a positive attitude and worked hard the entire season. Under the first-year head coach, Derrick Wolfe, the Tigers struggled tremendously finishing the season with 14 wins and 20 losses. Some good things that occurred came on awards night when certain players were recognized for their achievements. These players included Matt Miner (Tiger Award), Dylan Case (Hustle Award), Everett Pittillo (Most Improved Award), Justin Jones (Best Pitcher Award), and Shane Reed (Batting Award). These players were commended for their talent on the field throughout the season. The most exciting moment of the baseball season came against Motlow State when the Tigers defeated them 1-0 in the last inning. Though the 1996 season was a rough one, the Tiger baseball team will bounce back and improve in the years to come.

Going into the key conference showdown with league-leading Chattanooga State, the Hiwassee Lady Tigers softball team were hoping to move into first place in region. But after splitting with Motlow State earlier in the week, the Lady Tigers regular season hopes were dashed. Despite this loss, the Lady Tigers' hopes still remained strong. They stayed focused going into the final game of the regular season. The Chattanooga Lady Tigers had finished 4th in the nation with a record of 35-2. Hiwassee gave their all only to be defeated 3-0 in game one. But then, in game two of the set, the Hiwassee Lady Tigers came back to a 7-4 victory against the number four team in the nation. This gave the Hiwassee Ladies a 28-6 regular season record and 12-5 in the Conference. The Lady Tigers finished 5th in the Regional Tournament at 36 and 8. Seven girls made All-Conference: Christy Gouge, Mandy Moore, Angie Russell, Lakesha Carson, Beth Cox, Brandy Loy, and Susie Chambers. Five girls made All-State: Christy Gouge, Mandy Moore, Lakesha Carson, Angie Russell, and Brandy Loy. Coach Kevin Harris was named Coach of the Year for the Eastern Conference and named Co-Coach of the Year by the state. Congratulations, Softball Players!

"Name, please?" said the Sophomore volunteer at the beginning of the registration line. She didn't need our social security number, and our name was asked only once through the whole registration process, foreshadowing what lie ahead. Ever since, the staff, faculty, and administration haven't needed to ask our names more than once. After that, they knew. This is the beauty of Hiwassee College.

Through every basketball game and every final, Hiwassee students became a family. This yearbook was designed to give you a piece of Hiwassee to take with you throughout the rest of your life. Just as we entered Hiwassee with insecurity, Hiwassee was built with uncertainty. Through several mistakes and many problems, we have grown, just as Hiwassee. Friendships made and lessons learned are all here in the 1996 Hiwassee yearbook — your yearbook.

I would like to thank my friends, the yearbook staff, and Ms. Tompkins for their struggle through each deadline. Without their hard work, this yearbook would never have been outstanding. I would also like to thank my other friends at Hiwassee who have made these two years what they are: Kristi Hensley, Emmalene Jacobs (even though you got me in trouble for rolling a car), Amy Kidd, Pat Woodby, Amy Ghorley, Deanna Fields, Marlena Anderson, Natoshia Courtland, Chad Littleton, Mary Jane Caughran, Jennifer Weaver, Laverne McKinley, Tonia Mize, Chris Cate, Elizabeth Wenzel, Whitney Lewis, Robbie Hicks, and "my roomie" Cathy Hope.

I also want to thank my "bestest friend in the whole wide world" Amy Presley. You'd better visit me next year.

I would like to extend a thank you to all the professors and staff that have believed in me and never let me give up: Dr. Schiavoni, Ms. Tompkins (I spelled your name right), Dr. Fowler, and everyone at S.S.S. to name a few. Thank you, Mr. Hemphill, for always having time to chat with me (and keep me sane).

Thank you, thank you, thank you to Kevin Kile for ALWAYS being there for me, especially during those stressful yearbook deadlines. You have exceeded all my expectations and I love you!

Last, I would like to thank my family. They are all nuts but I love them, anyway. All the ambition I have comes from their love and support. Mom, Dad, Laura, Sabrina, Grandma and Granddaddy. I admire and am inspired by all of you.

This is a little longer than expected, but all of you hold a special place in my life, so I couldn't leave you out.

Love,

Sarah Melton
1996 Yearbook Editor
